

TOLBERT BULLETIN 10-01-09

Dear Chili Friends,

Ok lovelies, almost all should know by now if you are qualified to cook at the one and only ORIGINAL this year unless you're one of the lucky gals who wins Women's State this weekend so this is just a reminder that we will have the Last Chance again this year and the advanced reservation request are attached to this note. So best get it in on time.

For all you potential judges out there: the invitations are in the mail. Please respond soon after you get them to remain on the list.

Good News:

Well the best news for me is that I received call from the Chili Magistrate to tell me that all charges had been dropped against me because there was a lack of evidence and the DNA of the skid-marks on the unmentionables found in Dirty Women's Creek couldn't be identified and the folks at Sul Ross determined that the pollution of the creek was caused by the invasion of the Chupacabras and the run off from all their urine. Apparently it killed all the fish and they are not sure when or if the fish will ever return. My only concern now is that the lead Persecutor and the Bailiff didn't get the word and will try to have me arrested. I certainly do think that a certain Reverend who accused me of the dastardly deed offer me a public policy!

I also need to let you know that the folks at Dead Boot Chili, The Central Texas Group, are getting the word out loud and clear. And that was one of the reason ole Willimina ever started sending these out. The Goat Gap Gazette and the Tolbert websites should now be furnishing us now with the UPCOMING events so that's being done too. and that was the other reason I was sending them out to you. Now with all this instant communications it's hard for me to keep up. You can still send me stuff so I can find a good excuse to come down to the Salon and borrow Earl's computer to send you something now and then.

Bad News:

I'm glad to report that I have nothing tragic to report but I did hear from a perfectly unreliable source that Mizz Jane had a compound fracture of her left leg that has left her wheel chair bound for the next 6 weeks. It appears that her ungrateful hubby shoved her down the steps of the storm cellar when she wouldn't cook him some fried chicken.

Rumors, Scandals, Innuendoes and Gossip (and out-right lies):

The Lawman West of the Pecos confirmed that the Chihuahua City Tequila Cartel has been looking for some upstart that's selling Organic Blue Agave Tequila with a catchy cute name. The cartel is threatening to shut him down. We may have some shoot-outs over that.

There has been an increase in Goat and small animal killings by awful means in Brewster County. It shows sign of the active Chupacabra invasion. So keep your animals close and on a leach when you come out this year.

Now, don't you forget!

Go out there and find a chili cook and give him or her a great big hug, regardless of denomination.

Ta, Ta and Viva Terlingua,
Willimina

P.S. The purpose of this email is to disseminate information that may be of interest to Chili Cooks: be it rumors, gossip, recipes, good news and unfortunately bad news in a timely manner. If you do not care to receive another, please let the originator know. If you know of a friend who would like to hear from Willimina have the friend drop her a line. She will not accept an email address other than from the person. All email addresses are kept confidential so you keep them that way, too.
