Chicken/Ribs/Brisket Cooks

Chicken – one half (1/2) fully jointed chicken {no Cornish game hens}

Pork Ribs – seven (7) individual cut ribs with bone-in {no country style}

Beef Brisket – seven (7) full slices, approximately 1/4 to 3/8" thick

Meats may be cooked with sauces, but once cooking is completed, sauces cannot be used. No sauce may be added to the meat inside the tray; this could be grounds for disqualification. Tray lids must be able to close.

Bean/Pea Cooks

Beans – anything goes, you may use any kind of bean. Fill the cup to within 1 to $1\frac{1}{2}$ from the top. Black-eyed peas – anything goes, but you must use black-eyed peas. Fill the cup to within 1 to $1\frac{1}{2}$ from the top.

Salsa

Commercially made or pre-mix salsa is not allowed and will be disqualified. The salsa, including prep work and mixing of ingredients may be done any time prior to turn-in. Canned ingredients are acceptable, including tomatoes, tomato sauce, chilies, onions, garlic, lime, various spices, etc.

This is not a picante or hot sauce contest, heat (how hot it tastes) will not be a factor in judging.

Judging containers

The judging trays/cups provided are interchangeable and have the same color ticket. Top of trays is the side with the ticket on it. No garnishes or condiments allowed in trays. One sheet of silver foil will be supplied with each tray. Foil must line bottom of tray with the meat sitting on top of it. All judging containers shall be clean and free of obvious marks. Marked containers will be disqualified. If a judging container becomes damaged, it may be replaced when, along with the ticket attached to the container, is returned to the Friday's Event Director.

Very Last Chance Chili Cookoff – Uses standard Tolbert Rules, see web site for rules under Resources.
